CHURCH

Luke 14:15-24 (CEB)

<sup>15</sup>When one of the dinner guests heard Jesus’ remarks, he said to Jesus, “Happy are those who will feast in God’s kingdom.” <sup>16</sup>Jesus replied, “A certain man hosted a large dinner and invited many people. <sup>17</sup>When it was time for the dinner to begin, he sent his servant to tell the invited guests, ‘Come! The dinner is now ready.’ <sup>18</sup>One by one, they all began to make excuses. The first one told him, ‘I bought a farm and must go and see it. Please excuse me.’ <sup>19</sup>Another said, ‘I bought five teams of oxen, and I’m going to check on them. Please excuse me.’ <sup>20</sup>Another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’ <sup>21</sup>When he returned, the servant reported these excuses to his master. The master of the house became angry and said to his servant, ‘Go quickly to the city’s streets, the busy ones and the side streets, and bring the poor, crippled, blind, and lame.’ <sup>22</sup>The servant said, ‘Master, your instructions have been followed and there is still room.’ <sup>23</sup>The master said to the servant, ‘Go to the highways and back alleys and urge people to come in so that my house will be filled. <sup>24</sup>I tell you, not one of those who were invited will taste my dinner.’”

Try This:

1) A Tip for Whole Life Flourishing:

Where are you stuck in life, more static than dynamic? Could there be an invitation here from Jesus towards your own movement or your generosity to others?

2) Spiritual Practice of the Week:

Ask Jesus each morning for the attention to hear that day’s invitation to abundant life and for the courage to say yes. Listen for a moment, and notice what comes to mind.
