

Reservoir Partnerships Newsletter

Issue #1, November 2018

Reservoir Church commits 10% of its annual income to support Domestic and International Partners who seek to share Jesus in Boston and beyond in seeker-friendly ways.

ASHA

Asha practices sustainable community development and renewal in the slums of Delhi, India. They tackle the wide range of issues that can keep slum dwellers trapped in poverty, with programs that help residents gain access to healthcare, financial services and education, and make it possible for them to make long-term, positive changes to their lives. Asha's values of dignity, empowerment, justice, non-violence, compassion, gratitude, generosity, optimism, joy, and simplicity are deeply embedded in all their programs and relationships.

Their founder, Indian pediatrician Kiran Martin (below right), and her husband and associate director Freddy Martin, make regular visits to Reservoir Church and our sister Blue Ocean faith community in Manhattan, The River. We regularly send people to visit and encourage them and support their work in other ways.

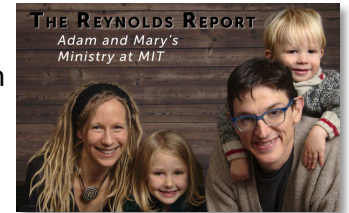

For more information, please contact: steve@reservoirchurch.org

ASHA website: <https://asha-india.org/>

Adam Reynolds (MIT)

Adam came to be part of the Reservoir community after seeing a postcard about the church in the mail. At Reservoir Church he found faith, his wife, Mary, and his life calling! For the past 12 years Adam and Mary have been engaged with the MIT community—Adam's alma mater—where Adam works full-time as a chaplain. At MIT, Adam and Mary experiment with innovative, Reservoir-style ways of sharing God's love through supporting spiritual health, faith exploration, and the search for meaning and purpose. They are the proud parents of Lily (born in 2011) and Ash (born in 2015). mitreynoldsreport.org

Kathy Tuan-MacLean

Kathy serves as a National Faculty Ministry Director. She dreams that in the next 12 years, in partnership with churches, volunteers and other ministries, to see a group of praying faculty on 2500 college campuses! Since 1990, she's ministered to undergraduates, graduate students and faculty in New York City and Boston. She's passionate about people experiencing Jesus—His love, His grace, and His reconciled community. She loves feeding people, literally and spiritually. Kathy has worshiped at Reservoir for 18 years and served on the church Board for 6 years.

Boston Educational Collaborative (BEC)

The BEC seeks to strengthen the educational pipeline/system in Boston, Cambridge, and Somerville, so that students have the socio-emotional and/or academic skills to succeed in school and are prepared for successful adulthood. Currently, the BEC is focused on supporting its network of church-school partnerships, as well as serving children, youth, & families in their immediate neighborhoods.

For more information, contact Ruth (Director) at: rwong@eqc.org, www.eqc.org/education

Reservoir Partnerships Newsletter

Issue #1, November 2018

Reservoir Church commits 10% of its annual income to support Domestic and International Partners who seek to share Jesus in Boston and beyond in seeker-friendly ways.

ASHA

Asha practices sustainable community development and renewal in the slums of Delhi, India. They tackle the wide range of issues that can keep slum dwellers trapped in poverty, with programs that help residents gain access to healthcare, financial services and education, and make it possible for them to make long-term, positive changes to their lives. Asha's values of dignity, empowerment, justice, non-violence, compassion, gratitude, generosity, optimism, joy, and simplicity are deeply embedded in all their programs and relationships.

Their founder, Indian pediatrician Kiran Martin (below right), and her husband and associate director Freddy Martin, make regular visits to Reservoir Church and our sister Blue Ocean faith community in Manhattan, The River. We regularly send people to visit and encourage them and support their work in other ways.

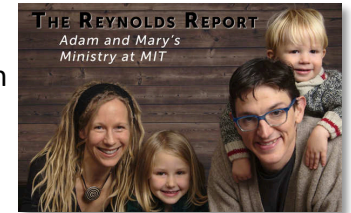

For more information, please contact: steve@reservoirchurch.org

ASHA website: <https://asha-india.org/>

Adam Reynolds (MIT)

Adam came to be part of the Reservoir community after seeing a postcard about the church in the mail. At Reservoir Church he found faith, his wife, Mary, and his life calling! For the past 12 years Adam and Mary have been engaged with the MIT community—Adam's alma mater—where Adam works full-time as a chaplain. At MIT, Adam and Mary experiment with innovative, Reservoir-style ways of sharing God's love through supporting spiritual health, faith exploration, and the search for meaning and purpose. They are the proud parents of Lily (born in 2011) and Ash (born in 2015). mitreynoldsreport.org

Kathy Tuan-MacLean

Kathy serves as a National Faculty Ministry Director. She dreams that in the next 12 years, in partnership with churches, volunteers and other ministries, to see a group of praying faculty on 2500 college campuses! Since 1990, she's ministered to undergraduates, graduate students and faculty in New York City and Boston. She's passionate about people experiencing Jesus—His love, His grace, and His reconciled community. She loves feeding people, literally and spiritually. Kathy has worshiped at Reservoir for 18 years and served on the church Board for 6 years.

Boston Educational Collaborative (BEC)

The BEC seeks to strengthen the educational pipeline/system in Boston, Cambridge, and Somerville, so that students have the socio-emotional and/or academic skills to succeed in school and are prepared for successful adulthood. Currently, the BEC is focused on supporting its network of church-school partnerships, as well as serving children, youth, & families in their immediate neighborhoods.

For more information, contact Ruth (Director) at: rwong@eqc.org, www.eqc.org/education

