Sermon

Steve Watson, “Spiritual Practice for Less Reactivity, More Wisdom and Peace”

Scripture:

Luke 12:32-40 (CEB)

³²“Don’t be afraid, little flock, because your Father delights in giving you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions and give to those in need. Make for yourselves wallets that don’t wear out—a treasure in heaven that never runs out. No thief comes near there, and no moth destroys. ³⁴Where your treasure is, there your heart will be too.

³⁵ “Be dressed for service and keep your lamps lit. ³⁶Be like people waiting for their master to come home from a wedding celebration, who can immediately open the door for him when he arrives and knocks on the door. ³⁷Happy are those servants whom the master finds waiting up when he arrives. I assure you that, when he arrives, he will dress himself to serve, seat them at the table as honored guests, and wait on them. ³⁸Happy are those whom he finds alert, even if he comes at midnight or just before dawn. ³⁹ But know this, if the homeowner had known what time the thief was coming, he wouldn’t have allowed his home to be broken into. ⁴⁰You also must be ready, because the Human One is coming at a time when you don’t expect him.”

Try this:

An Invitation to Whole Life Flourishing

Commit to a life of growing humility - more and better questions, and ready admission of all you don’t know. It will make you wiser and quicker to discern wisdom and foolishness in others.

Spiritual Practice of the Week:

Try five to twenty minutes a day of stillness and silence. Choose a single word associated with God and truth as an anchor for your attention during that time.
