Sermon

Lydia Shiu, "Purification: Us Marginalizing or Excluding Them"

Fourth in the Sermon Series, "Seven Stories: Jesus' Big Story, and the Other Stories by Which We Live"

Scripture:

Luke 5:12-16 New International Version (NIV)

¹² While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy.[a] When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

¹³ Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him.

¹⁴ Then Jesus ordered him, "Don't tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them."

¹⁵ Yet the news about him spread all the more, so that crowds of people came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. ¹⁶ But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.

Invitations to Whole Life Flourishing

Think of those that might feel excluded from religion or society. What would it look like to move toward them, to touch them, and to include them back into the fold of your community?

Spiritual Practice of the Week

If you've ever felt like you've been excluded or rejected from a dominant group, imagine Jesus putting his loving hand on you to say, "You're fine, you're good, you're loved and accepted."
